About Us

Gigi's Playhouse started in the suburbs of Chicago, but is now spreading nationwide, bringing awareness and inspiration to every community it touches. There are currently ten locations with four more opening this year, including the Syracuse Playhouse. Gigi's Playhouses are non-profit Down syndrome awareness and education centers that provide free resources, specialized teaching, and support to individuals with Down syndrome, their families, and the community. Our programs are educational and therapeutic in nature and are free to our families. Learn more about us at www.gigisplayhouse.org/syracuse.
