Five Little Fish Swimming by the Shore

Five little fish swimming by the shore.

One swam away and then there were four.

Four little fish swimming in the sea.

One swam away and then there were three.

Three little fish swimming in the blue.

One swam away and then there were two.

Two little fish swimming in the sun.

One swam away and then there was one.

One little fish swimming all alone.

He swam away and then there were none.
