Overview

Conference Website

The Conference web page, <https://gigisplayhouse.org/gigis-playhouse-national-conference/> can also be found at GIGisplayhouse.org under the EVENTS tab. Please check the conference website for a preliminary schedule, general updates, breakout session details, and more!

Registration

Conference registration is REQUIRED, and it is not the same as booking your hotel room. It's how you tell us which days you'll be present and which meals you'll be joining us. Please register HERE with Whova. This is the only way we know how many seats we need and how much food to prepare. If anything changes, please be sure to update your registration answers. Link is also on the conference web page above.

Conference App – Whova

The official GiGi's Playhouse Conference app is available on Google Play and the App Store (logo above). Download Whova and search for "GiGi"; choose 2024 GiGi's Annual Leadership Conference to access updated information on schedules, speakers, and locations. Make sure you also update your profile information and add a picture! Pictures cannot be added through the app, but they can be added by computer.

Please DO NOT put "GiGi's Playhouse" in the headline/organization field. Instead, please write your playhouse location and (optional) title. e.g., "Annapolis, Site Manager"
